THE GAME MUST GO ON

Dir. Angelis Andrikopoulou, Argyris Tsepelikas

Greek language with English subtitles

Greece/2010/81mins

It was once such a peaceful neighbourhood, but for Alexandra, Vlad and Chrysa, their passion for football has started a war with the adults in their street but despite their objections, the game must go on!

Under a barrage of abuse, threats and sometimes violence are four kids just wanting to play football. With the nearest park full of drug users and the local basketball court only open only on weekends, there's nowhere else to go. When Alexandra takes matters into her own hands by getting the mayor involved the situation really heats up.

"An original story of activism transforms itself into an exhilarating social testimony full of humour, cinematic talent and political poise with four unforgettable little heroes." - Athinorama Magazine

1st GREEK STUDENT FILM FESTIVAL

The 1st Greek Student Film Festival was launched earlier this year, asking students Studying Greek at primary, secondary and tertiary levels to make 4min short films.

The project is an initiative of the Education Office of the Consulate General of Greece in Melbourne in collaboration with the Department of Education and the Antipodes Festival.

Inspired by Manolis Rasoulis' song "Oh, Greece how I love you", students have undertaken the task of making short films with the guidance of their teachers and the completed films will be screened and awarded at the 17th Greek Film Festival.
